EASTERN LIVESTOCK CO., LLC, ) Case No. 10-93904-BHL-11
 )
Debtor. )

MOTION TO APPROVE COMPROMISE AND SETTLEMENT WITH CORNELISON FARMS, LLC

Pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, James A. Knauer, as Chapter 11 trustee ("Trustee") for the bankruptcy estate ("Estate") of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC ("Debtor"), by counsel, hereby files this motion (the "Settlement Motion") requesting the Court's approval of a compromise and settlement of claims between the Trustee and Cornelison ("Cornelison") pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A" (the "Settlement Agreement"). In support of this Settlement Motion, the Trustee respectfully represents the following:

Introduction and Background

1. Certain petitioning creditors commenced the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the "Chapter 11 Case") against the Debtor on December 6, 2010, by filing an involuntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code. This Court entered the Order for Relief in An Involuntary Case and Order to Complete Filing [Doc. No. 110] on December 28, 2010.

2. On December 27, 2010, the Court entered the Order Approving the Appointment of James A. Knauer as Chapter 11 Trustee [Doc. No. 102] pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1104.

3. On January 25, 2012, the Trustee filed the Trustee's Motion to Approve Certain Preference Avoidance Protocols and Terms of Settlement [Doc. No. 977] (the "Preference Protocol Motion"). The Court entered its Order Granting Trustee's Motion to Approve Certain Preference Avoidance Protocols and Terms of Settlement on February 15, 2012 [Doc. No. 1035] (the "Preference Protocol Order"), pursuant to which the Court authorized the Trustee to settle the Trade Preferences<sup>1</sup> in the sums of the Estimated Net Exposure without further order of the Court.

4. Based on his investigation, the Trustee concluded that Cornelison received not less than $281,060.52 in transfers from the Debtor (collectively, the "Transfers").

5. The Trustee commenced Adversary Proceeding No. 12-59096 against Cornelison on November 21, 2012 to avoid and recover the Transfers from Cornelison ("Preference Claim"). Subsequent to November 21, 2012, Cornelison has provided information to the Trustee and has asserted defenses that arguably and significantly reduce Cornelison's Estimated Net Exposure.

The Settlement

6. To avoid the cost, expense, and delay of litigation, Cornelison is willing to make immediate payment of $20,000.00 (the "Settlement Amount") in satisfaction of the

<sup>1</sup> Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Preference Protocol Motion.

Preference Claim, provided the Court enters a final, non-appealable order approving this Settlement Motion. Cornelison has, in fact, tendered this amount to the Trustee to be held in a trust account controlled by the Trustee while this matter is pending.

7. In accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Settlement Amount shall become part of the Recovery Fund (as that term is defined in the Estate's confirmed Chapter 11 Plan).

8. In the exercise of his sound business judgment, the Trustee has determined that a settlement of the Preference Claim in the Settlement Amount is in the best interests of the Debtor's estate and its creditors.

9. The Trustee requests that the Court approve the compromise and settlement of claims between the Trustee and Cornelison pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement. The Trustee is seeking court approval of the Settlement Agreement because the Settlement Amount is less than the sum of the Estimated Net Exposure as approved by the Preference Protocol Order.

Basis for Relief

10. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), this Court has authority to approve a compromise or settlement after notice and opportunity for a hearing. Under Bankruptcy Rule 9019, a bankruptcy court should approve a proposed compromise if it is fair and equitable and in the best interests of the estate. Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424 (1968); In re Doctors Hosp. of Hyde Park, Inc., 474 F.3d 421, 426 (7th Cir. 2007). The Seventh Circuit has offered the following guidance to courts in making such determinations:

The linchpin of the “best interests of the estate” test is a comparison of the value of the settlement with the probable costs and benefits of litigating. Among the factors the court considers are the litigation’s probability of success, complexity, expense, inconvenience, and delay, “including the possibility that disapproving the settlement will cause wasting of assets.”

In re Doctors Hosp. of Hyde Park, Inc., 474 F.3d at 426 (citations omitted).

11. Although the Trustee believes there is legal and factual support for the Preference Claim, settlement avoids the costs, expense, delay, and uncertainties of litigation. Litigation creates additional costs and expenses for the Debtor’s estate and will thereby further deplete the estate. When evaluating the proposed settlement, the Trustee considered (i) the expenses the Debtor’s estate would incur in litigating the Preference Claim, (ii) the probability of success in prosecuting the Preference Claim in light of the asserted defenses, and (iii) the best interests of the Debtor’s estate and its creditors.

12. Pursuant to the exercise of his sound business judgment, the Trustee believes that the compromise and settlement reflected in the proposed Settlement Agreement is fair and equitable and in the best interests of the estate.

13. If no objections to this Settlement Motion are filed, the Parties request that the Court enter an order approving the Settlement Agreement. If any objections to this Settlement Motion are filed, the parties request that this Settlement Motion and any timely filed objection be scheduled for hearing by the Court on the earliest date that is available and convenient to the Court

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter an order approving the Settlement Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit “A” and grant the Trustee all other just and proper relief.

Respectfully submitted,

KROGER, GARDIS & REGAS, LLP
